

Signing up for a Volunteer Spot On signup.com

Signup.com is website that we use to help organize volunteers for neighborhood events. The organizers of the event will create a SignUp page for all interested volunteers to view available volunteer “spots” that need to be filled. Below are the 4 step instructions for signing up.

Step #1: Access the Signup Page

The event organizer will provide you with a url/link to the signup page. The signup page contains all of the volunteer spots for the upcoming event. They are organized by the date the volunteer “spot” needs to be filled by.

The screenshot shows the Signup.com interface for an event titled "Alvarado Gardens Annual Block Party!". The event dates are from Tuesday, September 24, 2019, to Sunday, October 27, 2019. A message from the organizers explains the event and asks for volunteers. Below the message is a "Share this Invite" button and a "Find Spots By Date" section with a date selector set to "Sep 24, 2019" and a "Hide Full Spots" checkbox. The main content area displays a list of volunteer spots organized by date. The spots for Tuesday, September 24, 2019, are:
